Gettysburg Furniture Co. Closes After More Than A Half-Century Of Operation

The Gettysburg Furniture factory, which for several decades has been Adams County's largest manufacturing interest, and which has discontinued operations, began in 1907 when the late Clayton S. Reaser, York, acquired the small furniture plant known as the Engle Furniture Company. The Engle factory, at that time, employed approximately 12 men and was the successor to the Warner Furniture Company, which was the original furniture manufacturing plant in Gettysburg.

After its acquisition by Mr. Reaser, the little company was renamed the Reaser Furniture Company.

In 1912, C. S. Reaser organized the second furniture company and named it the Gettysburg Furniture Company. One of the original officers and directors of this company, Arthur H. Reaser, York, served continuously as an officer and director. The late Judge E. P. Miller, Gettysburg, was an original officer and director and served as such until his recent death.

ASSUMES MANAGEMENT

For many years the late John D. Keith was an officer and director of the companies and served as their general counsel.

The Hanover Cabinet Company, Hanover, was organized in 1911 by C. S. Reaser and M. C. Jones and was operated under the management of Mr. Jones. Upon Mr. Reaser's death in 1918, Mr. Jones assumed the management of the two local companies in addition to the Hanover plant.

The next enlargement of the factory took place in 1920 when the Gettysburg Panel Company was organized and a factory was built for the manufacture of plywood panels used in the manufacture of furniture by the three companies. At the same time, the Reaser and Gettysburg companies were greatly enlarged by the addition of new buildings.

The Gettysburg Chair Company was organized in 1923 for the handling of chairs required in conjunction with the bedroom and dining room furniture produced by the local factories.

ONE OF LARGEST

From their humble beginning in 1907, in the course of their 44-year history of expansion and improvement in manufacturing techniques, the factories became one of the largest furniture manufacturing (Continued On Page 3)

STRABAN TWP. VOTERS TO GET THREE BALLOTS

Involved in two school merger votes, Straban Twp. voters on November 8 will have three ballots to mark.

In addition to the regular ballot bearing the names of the candidates for public office, the Straban Twp. voters will get a special ballot on the Gettysburg Joint School District merger referendum and a third ballot carrying the question of the proposed merger in the New Oxford Joint School District.

The Straban voters are involved in both merger votes because the merger plans involve putting an eastern slice of Straban Twp. into the New Oxford merger while the remainder of the township stays in the Gettysburg joint or merged district. The dividing line has existed in the township for a number of years and pupils east of the line have attended the New Oxford schools.

EXPLAINED BY RIEGLE

The three-ballot assignment was explained by Superintendent of Schools H. Edgar Riegle Friday evening at a public meeting on the merger question at the Great Conewago Presbyterian Church at Hunterstown.

Riegle explained the financial and other advantages offered by the merger plan and described the plan set up in Pennsylvania school law for operation of a merged school district.

He listed as the chief financial advantage in a merger the $20,000 additional state appropriation that would come to the districts now in the Gettysburg Joint School system if they merge. He also explained ways in which a merged district could operate more efficiently than a joint school district. If all districts approve the merger, the number of directors would be reduced to nine instead of the present 37, he noted.

Riegle said that while the present school system operates "as smoothly as a jointure can," a 37-member board with its complicated voting system is cumbersome to operate. He noted that not long ago an important resolution lost at a joint board meeting with only two votes cast against it. Motions require majority votes of the entire joint board and five of the seven member boards, he noted.

CLUBS TO MEET

The Kiwanis Club will meet at the Lamp Post Tea Room Monday at 6:30 p.m. Elwood Hartman will be in charge of the program.

The Gettysburg Exchange Club will meet Tuesday at the same place at 6:30 p.m.

FILM FOR LIONS

John W. Flamer of the Department of Labor and industry will show a film titled "The New Girl" at the weekly dinner meeting of the Gettysburg Lions Club Monday evening at 6 o'clock at the VFW home. President Richard A. Folkenroth will preside.

Ike Declares Nixon Is Best Qualified For Presidency

By STERLING F. GREEN
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A free-swinging assault by President Eisenhower on Democratic "irresponsibility" raised Republican hopes today for homestretch victory in the final 10 days of the presidential campaign.

Eisenhower flew here Friday night for a nationally televised speech in his drive to make his vice president, Richard M. Nixon, his successor. Nixon was reported "extremely exhilarated" by the President's praise.

Eisenhower sparked bursts of applause as he hammered hard at Sen. John F. Kennedy's charges that Republican leadership has damaged American prestige abroad and steered the country into economic doldrums.

The President drew cheers with this shaft at the Democratic nominee: "My friends, anyone who seeks to grasp the reins of world leadership should not spend all his time wringing his hands."

"BY LONG ODDS"

Declaring Nixon "by long odds" the best qualified man to be president, Eisenhower struck the familiar Republican theme that Kennedy is immature and brash. Though he never mentioned Kennedy by name, Eisenhower said: "I hear that one candidate says he will act first and act

5 Killed When Car Is Smashed Against A Tree

OMAHA (AP) — Three girls and two boys were killed in Omaha late Friday night when their car missed a curve in a park and was crushed against a tree.

All six occupants of the car were pinned in the smashed vehicles.

The dead were identified by investigators as: Robert W. Gregg, 17, Omaha; Gus George Braun, Omaha, 19; Eileen Marie Micek, 17, Omaha; Carol Hollars, 16, Omaha; and Joan Janousek, age and address not immediately determined.

Injured and in critical condition was Jo Anne Eymann, 17, Omaha. Merrill Putnam, a traffic investigator, surmised that the car must have been traveling around 75 miles an hour.

SOUND EFFECTS MADE HERE FOR MUSIC ALBUM

Cannon, rifles, horses and men were combined today to recreate the sounds of the Battle of Gettysburg on Excelsior Field south of here.

The sound effects are being recorded to give authenticity to an album of Civil War music to be made by the Rochester Symphony Orchestra.

Dr. Frederick Fennell, director of the orchestra and head of the Eastman School of Music, is supervising the sounds.

USE OLD DRUMS, BUGLE

It is hoped to have an authentic background for music based on the numbers played by a Moravian band to cheer the troops during the fighting here on the afternoon of July 2, 1863. The band, made up mostly of medical corpsmen, was called into action to lift the morale of the troops engaged in the battle.

James B. Myers, superintendent of the National Park, is assisting with the work. Horses were secured from Wilson Clapsaddle. Photographs were made of uniformed men firing Civil War rifles and cannon to be used as a cover for the album.

Two Civil War drums and a bugle from the West Point Museum were brought here. The bugle was used at Abbottstown on April 9, 1865, marking the end of the war.

Special lines were run to the Fire Zouaves monument on Excelsior Field to provide power for the equipment.

Vice President's Post For Hughes

B. W. Hughes, 49, Guernsey, has been elected vice president of the Laird Co., Inc., of Scobeyville, N. J.

Hughes, who for 12 years was manager of the Duffy-Mott plant at Aspers, joined the Laird Company in May as manager of the organization's three plants at Scobeyville; New Garden, Va., and Lyons, N. Y.

His selection as vice president of the organization took place at a meeting of the board of directors of the organization last week at Scobeyville.

CUMBERLAND FOLK DISCUSS MERGER PLAN

How the proposed merger of the Gettysburg Joint School System would affect Cumberland Twp. was argued Friday evening by speakers at a meeting of residents of the township with the Cumberland Twp. School Board, Board of Supervisors and Planning Board at a meeting room in the West St. branch of the Gettysburg National Bank.

The meeting disclosed a difference of opinion among the Cumberland Twp. school board members, plus difference of opinion among many present concerning the proposed merger.

Col. Thomas H. Nixon, head of the planning commission, who presided, said the meeting was called because "this decision is probably the most important the township will make in a long time."

TAXES TO RISE

There was general agreement between school officials present and others that regardless of whether the district enters a merger or continues in a jointure school taxes will go up.

Two reasons for anticipated increases in school taxes are the planned construction of a new senior high school. Its cost was estimated at "more than $1,000,000" by several speakers. Paul Waybright, president of the Cumberland Twp. school board, pointed out: "We have too many school children for the present schools. There is no way to get out of building additional structures to take care of the increasing number of children. Thus it is going to cost more to house the children, and it is going to cost more for additional teachers for the increased enrollment and to pay the salary increases for teachers required by state laws. So taxes will go up."

Waybright, who was one of those favoring the merger "because it represents progress and you can't stand in the way of progress," Clifford B. Snowberger, Gettysburg High School principal, and Kenneth G. Reinhardt Jr., business manager of the Gettysburg jointure, were among those who answered questions and urged the township to vote for the merger.

NIXON GIVES VIEWS

Colonel Nixon agreed with the contentions of the schoolmen that a merger would affect some economies over the jointure type operation, but held that overall economies affecting the seven-district school system might mean economies for the taxpayers of Cumberland Twp. He held that if all seven districts enter into a merger—"one tax rate will be set for all. I can see how those districts with higher tax rates would receive greater benefits, but in townships such as Cumberland I question whether our township would benefit at all from the merger as far as taxes are concerned. Now we have possibly $10,000 a year coming from the amusement tax which helps pay Cumberland's school bill. Even if the amusement tax were continued by the merger it would then go into the merger and Cumberland would receive only a share of the benefit from that income."

Col. Nixon said, "There is another important consideration for Cumberland Twp. Once the tax rates in the township become approximately equal to those of Gettysburg borough we can expect massive annexations of some of the best tax producing real estate in the township. We are sorry to learn of the recent losses of industry by the borough. However, it is only a continuance of a long time trend. From 1954 to 1958 retail establishments in Gettysburg dropped from 188 to 168 while selected commercial facilities dropped from 101 to 63 according to the U. S. Census Bureau. A large part of recent construction in the borough has been tax exempt. In the township only the Eisenhower School and the county home are in this class. During the past 10 years Cumberland Twp.'s population has increased 50 per cent. Now we (Continued On Page 2)

HAVANA (AP)—The arrival of a contingent of U.S. Marines at Guantanamo naval base today for the weekend was expected to launch Prime Minister Fidel Castro into a new round of charges that the United States is grooming an invasion force.

Cuban officials showed great interest in the announcement from Washington that 1,450 Marines on maneuvers in the Caribbean will land at the U.S. naval base at the east end of Cuba for a few days of rest and recreation.

Cuban officials did not comment. Castro was to make a nationwide television speech today, the time of which was indefinite.

1,450 Marines Go To Cuba To Rest After Long Maneuvers; Castro Is Loading With Arms

HAVANA (AP)—The arrival of a contingent of U.S. Marines at Guantanamo naval base today for the weekend was expected to launch Prime Minister Fidel Castro into a new round of charges that the United States is grooming an invasion force.

Cuban officials showed great interest in the announcement from Washington that 1,450 Marines on maneuvers in the Caribbean will land at the U.S. naval base at the east end of Cuba for a few days of rest and recreation.

Cuban authorities at Santiago, near Guantanamo, were said to be concerned that the United States was preparing a fake attack against the big naval installation as a pretext for armed aggression against Cuba.

The U.S. State Department asked a special six-nation committee of the Organization of American States to investigate its charges that thousands of tons of Soviet bloc arms have been shipped to Cuba along with Communist technicians to train Cubans in their use. The committee was set up last August to look into U.S.-Cuban disputes.

ALTON SNYDER WINS CASE IN COUNTY COURT

After slightly more than two hours' deliberation, an Adams County jury at 5 o'clock Friday evening found in effect that Alton W. Snyder, Gettysburg R. 2, had not set fire to a house in Liberty Twp. on February 3, 1955.

The jury's verdict in an action to quiet title brought by Snyder and his wife against the Paradise Mutual Insurance Co. and Hartford Fire Insurance Co. simply stated "in favor of the plaintiff for $5,000."

Attorneys for both sides, in their arguments to the jury, had held that Snyder should not receive any recompense, nor should the jury find in his favor if the jury felt that Snyder had burned the house to secure the insurance, as the insurance companies had contended in their defense against Snyder's attempts to recover his property.

SOME FACTS OMITTED

Because of court rules there was no mention in this trial of a prior criminal case brought against Snyder alleging he had burned the house. In that case a jury on April 26, 1957, had found Snyder innocent of the charge of arson. The verdict of the jury Friday afternoon in effect confirmed that earlier verdict.

Attorneys explained following the trial that a verdict in a criminal case may not be mentioned in a civil suit because the matters involved are different.

Nor was there any mention allowed in the civil suit of Snyder having been hospitalized for nearly two years after his arrest on the charge of burning the house in Liberty Twp.

After Snyder's house in Liberty Twp. burned to the ground in February, 1955, the insurance companies paid off an $8,500 mortgage held by a Chambersburg woman, took over the mortgage and took the deed to the property to hold "as trustee."

Snyder was arrested, then was hospitalized. In April, 1957, he (Continued On Page 5)

They were removed to the Warner Hospital in the Biglerville Fire Company ambulance.

SEARCH TURNS TO BALTIMORE

Search for a man who stole a car at gunpoint, then later handcuffed a Maryland state policeman to a roadside sign near Hampstead moved to the Baltimore area Friday night after the man had forced a Hampstead area resident to drive him to that city.

State police at Randallstown said the man entered the home of Hewlett S. Stone, on the Leister's Church Rd., near the Maryland-Pennsylvania line between Hampstead and Hanover, and at gunpoint forced Stone to drive him to Baltimore. When they entered the city the man left Stone's car. Stone then notified police.

Maryland state troopers, policemen from Gettysburg state police barracks and other state police substations along the Maryland border and officers from the Pennsylvania turnpike were called into the search in the Hanover Water Co. impounding dam area all day Friday and into the evening. Helicopters were used in the search along with men on foot and in cars. The search continued until Stone reported that he had been forced to drive the man to Baltimore.

The Pennsylvania state police, including those from Gettysburg, were called off the search Friday night when a Pennsylvania state policeman was shot near Duncan by a Bainbridge, Md., sailor. The local officers then joined in the search for the Bainbridge man through central Pennsylvania. The fugitive was captured at Williamsport.

There was argument that representation will be lost by cutting the school board down to one representative from each district plus two elected at large if the merger goes through. Reinhart said that, if any of the districts merge, it will automatically cut down representation because then the joint board will be cut down to one representative from each of the joint members and the merged district, plus, if needed, one more from the "largest district."

have motels, amusements, etc., all contributing to our tax base. Just recently a permit was issued for a $135,000 office building. The township is bound to increase its tax base. Gettysburg has little area in which to expand except by annexation.

"As a second class township it is doubtful if there is any legal way to stop annexation to the borough if the citizens desire the change. The only way to prevent the loss of close-in areas is to make the township attractive—hold down taxes. Our road tax is only four mills. Even if our voters were willing to help out our less fortunate neighbors, which we would be doing by entering a merger, as a matter of self preservation we cannot afford to create an atmosphere conducive to mass annexation."

NOT "READY"

Cumberland Twp. School Director John E. Settle Jr. held he did not believe the township was "ready yet" for a merger and added, "I don't believe it has been proven a good thing yet."

Cumberland School Director Glenn L. Sterner held he believed the merger will help solve Cumberland's transportation problems, because since its area surrounds Gettysburg it has large numbers of pupils with only a short mileage on which to collect a return from the state.

OFFICIALS VIEW

Principal Snowberger and Business Manager Reinhart explained that if several of the districts in the seven-district jointure favor a merger at the November 8 election those districts so favoring will be merged. The other districts will remain in a jointure with the merged district. The merged district will receive the financial benefits of a merger from the state while the districts still in jointure will not. Whether the districts that prefer to remain in jointure will be allowed to become part of the merger later will be decided by future referendum.

There was argument that representation will be lost by cutting the school board down to one representative from each district plus two elected at large if the merger goes through. Reinhart said that, if any of the districts merge, it will automatically cut down representation because then the joint board will be cut down to one representative from each of the joint members and the merged district, plus, if needed, one more from the "largest district."

Justice Department Says Pearson Charges Baseless

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Justice Department says a column by Drew Pearson contained baseless innuendo against Vice President Richard M. Nixon and others.

In a statement issued late Thursday, it said Pearson had implied that the department agreed to settle an antitrust suit against the Hughes Tool Co., because Hughes' lawyer had made a $205,000 loan to a business venture headed by Nixon's brother.

The department said the antitrust action was proposed and the suit was filed after the loan was made.

Robert N. Finch, Nixon's presidential campaign manager, called Pearson's statements "an obvious political smear in the last two weeks of the campaign." He said any suggestions "that we in any way had anything to do with the Hughes Tool Co. receiving any so-called government benefits is pure libel."

Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., said Thursday night that Pearson's charges in the Hughes case, as well as charges he said the columnist made about Maurice Stans, director of the budget, should be aired before the election.

The senator referred to a Pearson report that Stans has been and indirectly still is a participant in oil royalties from 1,000,000 acres of government oil lands in Alaska.

Kefauver said, "Thus far, I have seen no denial by Budget Director Stans of the serious allegations in his case."

Pearson had written that the Hughes suit was settled by a consent decree on April 4, 1958, "after the loan was advanced to the Nixon family." He said the loan transaction was made Dec. 10, 1956.

The Justice Department said its antitrust division proposed the suit July 19, 1957, and that it was filed in New York two weeks later. It said the consent decree came April 4, 1959, and was regarded by the department as entirely satisfactory in enjoining the actions it had objected to on Hughes' part.

At the time of the loan, Pearson wrote, the Hughes firm had various important matters before the government and "many of these problems got better treatment after the loan."

The money was loaned to Nixon, Inc., a restaurant chain then headed by F. Donald Nixon. The chain since has been taken over by creditors. The loan was made out to Hannah M. Nixon, mother of Donald and the vice president. Nixon's campaign manager said the loan came not from Howard Hughes or his company but from Frank J. Waters, whom Finch identified as a California friend of the Nixon family. Pearson wrote that Waters was an attorney for Hughes and "was actually acting for Hughes with the approval and knowledge of the vice president."

More Newspapers Are Backing Nixon

NEW YORK (AP)—Most daily newspapers are supporting Vice President Richard M. Nixon in the presidential race but Sen. John F. Kennedy is getting more backing than did Adlai E. Stevenson in 1956, Editor and Publisher magazine said Thursday.

The trade journal said its figures still were preliminary but that so far 691 papers had endorsed Nixon editorially while 194 had come out for Kennedy.

In 1956, the magazine counted 740 papers for President Eisenhower and 189 for Stevenson.

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Some police are patrolling their beats on bicycles because the machines are less conspicuous than cars and easier on the feet than walking.

Police Chief F. J. Ruppenthal gave the two-wheel duty to patrolmen in the downtown business and warehouse districts. "The idea of this kind of patrol work is to stay in the dark—and they can do just that on bicycles," the chief said.

"TRUE CONTENTMENT"

Contentment isn't found in gold . . . or in what it will buy . . . some never will acquire it . . . no matter how they try . . . because they search for it on roads . . . which lead to hills of strife . . . thus they seldom ever know . . . a moment's peace in life . . . where, then, is true contentment found . . . how can we share its treasure . . . this precious priceless gift of God . . . affording so much pleasure . . . it lingers in a job well done . . . and in a warm caress . . . it lives in countless little things . . . that foster happiness . . . you do not have to search for it . . . in places far apart . . . contentment only comes to those . . . who have a loving heart.

DEBBIE'S TV DEBUT CALLED DULL BY CRITIC

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP-TV Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Debbie Reynolds of the motion pictures made her television debut Thursday night on ABC with a special hour's program that was practically a one-woman show.

Miss Reynolds is a cute, vivacious, sweet-faced young woman who dances well and sings appealingly. But except for a moment here and there, it was a dull and uninspired hour.

The trouble was that Debbie didn't have much good material with which to demonstrate her talents.

Her imitation of Zsa Zsa Gabor doing a little cooking and laundry was amusing and her solo impression of a teen-ager on her first date was another bright spot. Walter Brennan and Charles Ruggles turned up in a tedious sketch which didn't improve when they all sang and danced. The sets were undistinguished, the music and dance numbers were pedestrian.

LIKED COMO

With the return of Goodman Ace to the Perry Como fold, the NBC weekly variety show has taken on a fine gloss. Wednesday night's show was a particularly handsome one—including the attractive and talented guest stars Andy Williams, Jane Powell and Thelma Ritter. Highlight of the show each week is that beautifully photographed windup when Como climbs onto his stool and sings. But I wish Ace would do something about that tiresome cute talk between Como and the unseen Frank Gallup.

ABC's "Hong Kong" is hitting its stride these days and, along with that network's "Naked City" emerging as one of the taut, fast-moving new action series of the season.

REVISE RULES FOR LOANS TO PART-TIMERS

Farmers who have regular off-farm employment, if otherwise eligible, may obtain farm operating and development loans from the Farmers Home Administration, under the recently revised regulations of the agency.

Donald C. Miller, Farmers Home Administration county supervisor for Adams and York Counties, said the new regulation went into effect October 1. Previously, except in rural development counties, a farmer had to spend most of his time farming in order to qualify for a loan.

Experience gained in rural development counties has shown that many farmers who are regularly employed off the farm can profitably use the Farmers Home Administration's credit facilities to increase the farm portions of their total incomes. The regulation, which had limited credit assistance to farmers who spent most of their time farming, prevented some from obtaining the maximum income from their farms and from taking advantage of opportunities for industrial and other off-farm employment. Other eligibility requirements remain unchanged. Applicants must have sufficient farm experience to carry on sound farm operations, must need credit, and be able to obtain financial assistance from other sources. As in the past, credit will be extended only to operators of farms that are family-size or smaller. No loan will be made unless a plan for the coming year's farming operations shows that income from the farm and other sources will be large enough to enable the farm family to have a reasonable standard of living, pay debts, and have an adequate reserve for emergencies.

Loan funds may be used to pay farm operating costs, purchase equipment and livestock, pay farm development costs, and refinance certain debts. The interest rate is five per cent. Repayment schedules depend upon the purposes for which funds are advanced and upon the estimated incomes from the farms. Usually, loans made for real estate purposes will be from funds advanced by private lenders and insured by the agency. Technical farm and money management assistance is supplied to each borrower to the extent necessary.

The Farmers Home Administration office serving Adams and York Counties is located at the Adams Electric Co-operative building, rear N. Stratton St., Gettysburg, Pa. The agency also supplies credit for farm housing and soil and water conservation.

The United Nations announced that the full General Assembly would meet Monday to hear a new appeal by Cuba for a quick hearing on its charges that the United States plans a grand-scale invasion.

In Moscow Tass issued an account of an interview premier Khrushchev gave Cuban newsmen in which the Soviet news agency quoted the premier as saying his promise of rocket support to Cuba in event of American aggression "should be considered symbolic."

GET RED ROCKETS

Earlier, Revolution, the Castro organ, had said Khrushchev was asked if Soviet rockets were ready to assist Cuba in case of need and quoted him as answering: "Unquestionably. But it's better that there be no aggression, as we will do everything possible to avoid using our rockets."

The Cuban press almost ignored the departure Friday night of U. S. Ambassador Philip Bonsal, recalled to Washington for consultations for the third time since he came here early in 1959. The tall, austere diplomat, who has borne much personal abuse in his 22-month assignment to Cuba left smilingly amid jeers and cheers.

Berserk Deer Is Ordered Slain

PITTSBURGH (AP)—"Jiggers," the bold deer of North Park, is dead. County authorities ordered the buck shot after he was captured Thursday night.

"Jiggers" escaped from a corral at the park last week. He chased several men, downed a couple of them and chased Mrs. Richard Raer around a tree several times. Thursday night, the 14-month-old deer appeared at the Baer home again. Baer, a Pine Twp. policeman, and some neighbors lassoed the animal and tied him to a tree. Authorities later decided to shoot him.

HAVANA (AP)—Commerce Minister Raul Capero Bonilla Friday night announced the sale of 5,000 tons of sugar to Canada under a new trade pact through which Cuba reportedly will obtain flour and other Canadian products, including replacement parts for machinery.

J. W. Shainline To Attend Conference

John W. Shainline, dean of students at Gettysburg College, is among those invited from a selected list of liberal arts colleges throughout the country to attend a conference at Princeton University, October 31, November 1, and 2.

The conference is sponsored by the American Council on Education and is set up as a "Commission on the College Student." It will deal with effective ways of introducing entering students to the intellectual aims and values of the college as contrasted to the mechanics of college life. Entering students and ideas of learning are other phases to be discussed at the conference.

Shainline was appointed to the planning committee of first conference on Mental Health in Teacher Education jointly sponsored by University of Pittsburgh School of Education and Bureau of Community Mental Health Service Department of Public Welfare.

groups in the east. The products of the plants were distributed to practically every state in the Union.

Offices and permanent display rooms have for many years been maintained in the New York Furniture Exchange building, New York City, and in the American Furniture Mart, Chicago.

Since 1938, when a new building was constructed adjoining the office building, the local companies have maintained a display of their manufactured products. A furniture show, held semi-annually as a preview before the important New York and Chicago shows, attracted hundreds of buyers from the eastern section of the country. Many of the largest and best stores of the country were numbered among the customers of the local factories.

JONES SELLS INTEREST

In his retirement, Mr. Jones ended a career in the furniture business which started in 1905 when he secured his first job, that of stenographer with the plant now known as the Pennsylvania Furniture Company, York.

He left that company in 1908 to join C. S. Reaser in Gettysburg as the bookkeeper and stenographer. Two years later he went to Chicago where he was connected with a wholesale furniture company until 1911 when the Hanover Cabinet Company was organized.

From 1918, until his retirement several years ago, Mr. Jones had been an officer and director, as well as general manager of the several companies. When he disposed of his interests, the late S. Richard Lemberg directed the management of the company until his untimely death in August 1957. Since that time the company has been under the management of a triumvirate.

Last week it was announced that the company had gone out of business and will wind up its affairs here before the beginning of a new year.

Workers Escape Huge Explosion

SAN LEANDRO, Calif. (AP)—With a blast that reverberated throughout the San Francisco Bay area, 2,500 pounds of nitroglycerine exploded at the Trojan Powder Co. here Friday.

Sixty workers in the demolished building, warned of the impending explosion, escaped unharmed. The only injury reported was a cut arm sustained by a woman in a nearby shopping center. She was struck by glass from a shattered window.

Fire Chief Manuel Rodriguez said defective wiring in powder drying machinery near the shed where the explosives were stored apparently touched off a fire that ignited the nitroglycerine.

The workers at the plant started running when they heard danger sirens, sounded when flames were spotted near the powder shed. Two men were thrown to the ground but they were not hurt.

12 PENNSY CARS ARE DERAILED

ALTOONA, Pa. (AP)—Three wreck train crews worked into the early hours this morning to clear the wreckage of derailed coal cars from the Pennsylvania Railroad main line near famed Horseshoe Curve.

A PRR spokesman said two diesel locomotive units and 12 cars at the front of the train left the track about five miles west of here Friday night.

The coal cars tumbled onto their sides, strewn coal over the area and blocking the two eastbound tracks. There were no reports of injuries.

Other trains continued moving in both directions without delay over the two westbound tracks.

The cause of the derailment was not immediately learned. The train, headed from West Brownsville to Altoona, was made up of six diesel locomotive units and about 90 cars.

Deity worship is so widespread on Formosa that even ideas and concepts can become gods. A temple has even been dedicated to the worship of democracy.

The prize money was reserved for next year, a brief announcement from the committee said. The amount of this year's prize was not disclosed.

PHILADELPHIA GIVES OVATION TO PRESIDENT

By LEE LINDER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—President Eisenhower, a voting resident of Pennsylvania, told a cheering, partisan crowd of Philadelphia Republicans Friday night he would vote for Richard M. Nixon for president and hopes everybody will join him.

Thus the gentleman farmer from Gettysburg formally entered the 1960 political campaign and, in a sharp attack on the ideas, programs and criticisms of the Democrats, called Nixon and running-mate Henry Cabot Lodge "the team that can best lead the nation."

Forty times in his half-hour televised speech Eisenhower was interrupted by applause, whistles and shouts of, "You're all right, Ike."

NOISY AND AFFECTIONATE

The President arrived by plane from Washington late Friday and drove, in a light rain, through center city streets. Thousands of persons, just off from work, lined the sidewalks. Estimates ranged from a low of 10,000 to as high as 75,000.

The crowd, were noisy and affectionate and shouts of "We like Ike" echoed down the streets as the grinning Eisenhower rode by, arms high.

The President was in so-called enemy political territory, but his personality rubbed off anyone on the crowds. In the 1952 and 1956 campaigns Eisenhower lost Philadelphia to Adlai Stevenson while winning Pennsylvania's 32 electoral votes.

Offer Reward For Capture Of "Pranksters": Biglerville's councilmen and burgess today posted a reward of $25 for information leading to the arrest of pranksters who "decorated" the square of that borough over the weekend.
J. Hoke Slaybaugh, burgess, said that each Halloween prankster has caused a dangerous condition in the community by piling obstacles in the square and that this year the reward is being offered in an effort to prevent a continuation of the annual pranks.

Warn Juveniles On Use Of Air Rifles In Town: Burgess William G. Weaver, the borough police and District Attorney Daniel E. At the same time he added that the drive, scheduled to end today, has been extended to permit solicitors to complete their work, and to permit various organizations to hold meetings at which they plan to announce their contribution to the chest.

Expect Spook Parade Will Be Largest Held: Gettysburg's Halloween celebration Tuesday evening should be "the biggest in years," Donald Joseph, chairman of the committee in charge, estimated today.

With warm weather promised by the weatherman and with $240 in prizes beckoning, the parade is expected to be one of the largest ever.

The triduum will precede a holy hour to be held Wednesday evening at the church to commemorate the proclamation of the dogma of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Rev. Fr. Francis B. Kearney, of the faculty of the Mount Saint Mary's college, will be the speaker at all of the special services.

Weekend Traffic Again Heavy Here: Tourist visitation over the past weekend was heavy, reports from various sources indicated today, but the number was described as lower than the large numbers that toured the field on the previous weekend.

Actual figures concerning the visitation were not immediately available, with Cemetery Superintendent Vernon Lunt, who compiles the figures, being on vacation.

The number of tourists, however, was estimated at several thousand.

Today's Talk

THE LEAVES
Never do I so love and understand the leaves of the trees about me as when sitting in the sunshine and listening to the gentle music of the pines. This past summer I imagined I was taking a stroll with God. It was that realistic. I seemed to understand the moods and inwardness of the trees.

How happy the birds that flew in and out of the branches. Soon they will fly off to warmer haunts but with that farewell song of theirs which all lovers of the wild know so well with natural wild life. I always feel that I am in the presence of the inspired-endowed. I actually carried on a conversation with the maple leaves. There was activity for hours. I looked upon horse racing, pole vaulting, tennis, boxing and polo.

Nature is so funny at times. She is different but always interesting and full of wonder. That is her realm—retreat of wonders.

Soon will have fallen the "last leaf" about which Holmes wrote so beautifully. I would like to know each leaf personally so as to talk intelligently to each tree and each leaf. I believe that there is a living soul to every forest!

Just Folks

THE JOLLY HOUR
I like to spend an evening out, At cards I like to play;
My troubles then are put to rout, My cares are laid away.
But of the jolly hours we spend, The best one of the bunch
Is when the card game's at an end And some one serves a lunch.

There's no restriction at the board,
We laugh in merry jest;
With witty tales our minds are stored,
Each strives to tell the best.
The midnight hour to me is sweet,
The gayest of the bunch;
When we're invited in to eat,
And someone serves a lunch.

'Tis then the olives taste the best,
And sweeter is the dill;
The cold slaw has an added zest,
I eat it with a will.

The coffee has a flavor rare,
My cheese and bread I munch;
Oh, it's a joy beyond compare,
When some one serves a lunch.

Oh, some there are who may have dined
With president or king;
With great men many may have wined,
And count it quite the thing.

But what care I for men of power,
Give me my little bunch
Of friends about the midnight hour,
When some one serves a lunch.

UNION CHIEFS ARE GUILTY IN SCANDAL CASE

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Three top officials of the Carpenters Union were convicted Friday night of bribing an Indiana highway official in quick-profit right-of-way deals, climaxing a high-way scandal case that dated back nearly three years.

Maurice A. Hutcheson, president of the 850,000-member international union; O. William Blaier, vice president, and Frank M. Chapman, treasurer, displayed no emotion as Criminal Court Judge M. Walter Bell read the verdict.

Bell ordered a presentence investigation and set Nov. 28 for sentencing. The conviction carries a 2-14-year prison sentence and a maximum fine of $15,000 each.

The jury of seven men and five women deliberated less than three hours before finding all three guilty of bribing and conspiracy to bribe Harry A. Doggett of Greensburg, former right-of-way purchasing director for the Indiana Highway Department.

$15,000 BRIBE

The three were charged with giving Doggett a $15,000 check for advance information about proposed routes for highways in Wayne and Lake counties. The prosecution contended they bought land along the proposed routes then sold it to the state, making $81,000 profit.

John A. Roysse, defense attorney for Blaier and Hutcheson, announced he would ask for a new trial. John A. O'Hara, attorney for Chapman, said he would request a suspended sentence for his client. He said Chapman was suffering from cancer, heart trouble and diabetes and would undergo surgery in Seattle, Wash., his hometown, next week.

The union officials were indicted Feb. 18, 1958, by a Marion County (Indianapolis) grand jury after a Lake County grand jury failed to return indictments on similar charges. After the Lake County investigation, the alleged profits were repaid to the state by the defendants.

The Carpenters' officials' trial was delayed nearly three years by a series of legal maneuvers.

Young Sailor Murders Wife And Shoots Pennsy Trooper

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—A domestic quarrel began a trail of violence from Maryland to northern Pennsylvania that ended Friday night with a woman dead and a state policeman wounded.

A sailor identified by Pennsylvania state police as Donald R. Riefer, 24, Rochester, N.Y., was stopped after a high-speed chase south of here and, state police said, admitted killing his wife and shooting the state trooper.

The woman's body was found back in their Port Deposit, Md., apartment, near the U.S. Naval Training Center at Bainbridge, where Riefer was stationed as a shore patrolman.

TROOPER SHOT 6 TIMES
Some 100 miles to the north, trooper Stanley J. Jezewski, 22, of Nanticoke, lay in a hospital bed in Harrisburg, after being shot six times.

And another 85 miles north, at the Child Welfare Society here, were the bewildered children of the sailor, Donald, 5, and Daniel, 3.

The shooting of Jezewski, who had stopped Riefer's car for speeding, brought the day of violence to a head. It was not until Riefer was apprehended 90 minutes later near here by state police that he told the story about his wife's death.

WIFE SHOT 7 TIMES
Maryland police checked the Port Deposit dwelling and found the young woman's body, shot seven times as Riefer had said. No charges were immediately lodged against Riefer.

Riefer told investigators his wife and he had quarreled after she ordered him to leave their home. He said she left—that was Friday morning—but returned about 5 p.m. His wife, Geraldine, 24, started crying, Riefer said, and he struck her with a hammer. Then, he said, he emptied his pistol—seven bullets—into her head. They had been married five years.

SHOT WITHOUT WARNING
He took his bags, which he had already packed, and the two children and put them in the car and headed for his home in Rochester.

About 20 miles north of Harrisburg—on U.S. 11-15 near Liverpool, Perry County—Jezewski flagged the car down at 7 p.m. As the trooper approached, Riefer rolled down his window and without a word fired at the trooper. He was hit in the chest, arms and one hand.

While Riefer sped northward, Jezewski got to his car and radioed for help. A woman passerby, Mrs. William Hutchinson, a registered nurse from Carlisle, administered first aid. Jezewski was rushed to Polyclinic Hospital here where he was reported in fair condition.

An hour and a half later, trooper Alex Remchak spotted the Riefer car and gave chase, at speeds up to 90 miles an hour, until he forced him to stop about five miles south of here, on Bald Mountain. Remchak said Riefer offered no resistance. The trooper said the sailor had reloaded his gun and had 29 shells in a pocket.

Riefer, in civilian clothes, sat in a daze in the state police barracks at nearby Montoursville as he told his story. He kept his head buried in his hands, raising it only to answer questions. After further questioning, he was to be taken to the Perry County jail at New Bloomfield to await proceedings.

The dwindling list of unbeaten college football powers could undergo another trimming today. Hardly a week has gone by that some power hasn't bitten the dust.

Well, Iowa, top-ranked outfit in the country in this week's Associated Press ratings, has been staggering along—the Hawkeyes beat Purdue last week 21-14, with the winning margin an 84-yard touchdown run by third stringer Dayton Perry—and go against tough Kansas today in quest of victory No. 6.

The Jayhawks have been placed on probation by the NCAA for recruiting sins and they plan to go all out by way of showing their contempt for the ruling.

A field goal from the 23-yard line by Al Dangle gave the Miami (Fla.) Hurricanes a come-from-behind 10-7 victory over Boston College in one of the few games played Friday night. New Mexico trounced Denver 41-6 in a Skyline Conference game and the Detroit Titans whipped the Quantico Marines 28-7.

OLD MISS VS. LSU
Mississippi, No. 2 in the rankings, plays Louisiana State and an emphatic triumph by the Rebs would give them a good talking point to get back to the top of the list.

Defending national champion Syracuse, with 16 victories in a row, has a problem in Pitt. The Panthers are 2-2-2, but reports from their lair indicate they can't wait to tear Syracuse apart.

Navy, No. 4, plays Notre Dame, which shows a four-game losing streak. Joe Bellino and Co. are the heavy favorites, especially now that they have been mentioned as Rose Bowl candidates.

Missouri, No. 5, and the current favorite to win the Big Eight championship, battles Nebraska in a league game. The Cornhuskers will present a stern test. They've beaten Texas and Army.

OTHER CONTESTS
Minnesota, No. 6, appears to have an easy assignment against much-battered Kansas State while Baylor, No. 7, tangles with Texas Christian in a Southwest Conference game.

The only other major undefeated-untied teams in the country are New Mexico State (6-0) which plays Arizona State, Yale (5-0), which has a date with Dartmouth and Rutgers (5-0), which tangles with Villanova.

In the only game between two members of the top 10, Ohio

KENNEDY CALL UNFORTUNATE

ATLANTA (AP) — Georgia's governor and lieutenant governor are standing firm for the Democratic party despite displeasure over telephone calls the Kennedy brothers made concerning jailing of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Gov. Ernest Vandiver said Friday night at Richmond, Va., a phone call by Sen. John F. Kennedy to the wife of the Negro integration leader could affect the presidential campaign in Georgia to some extent.

But he didn't think that Georgia would fail to go Democratic. "She always has and I believe she will again this year," he told newsmen at a Democratic dinner where he was the featured speaker.

"UNFORTUNATE" CALL
However, Vandiver said Kennedy's call was "unfortunate."

The Democratic presidential candidate phoned Mrs. King Wednesday to express sympathy over the jailing of her husband in connection with a sit-in demonstration and a traffic charge in adjacent DeKalb County.

Robert Kennedy's call was to Judge Oscar Mitchell of DeKalb County to inquire about the right to bail. King later was released on bond pending appeal of his case.

Lt. Gov. Garland T. Byrd criticized the Kennedy brothers for making the calls but said, "I don't think that it will materially change the position of the Democratic party in the state."

State (4-1), No. 8, meets Michigan State (3-1-1), No. 10 in a Big Ten game. This will be a battle for survival because the loser probably will be eliminated from the race.

Washington, No. 9, plays Oregon, after coming through with a hairbreath triumph over Oregon State last week. Oregon has been beaten only once.

Regional TV games include Ohio State-Michigan State, Mississippi-Louisiana State and California-Oregon State.

DOCTOR FACES 199-YEAR TERM

METROPOLIS, Ill. (AP) — Dr. Walter J. Goodpaster, 47, faces a 199-year sentence for murder in the rifle slaying last Christmas day of a woman walking home from a round of taverns.

The Herrin, Ill., optometrist, brother of a White House aide, must serve 66 years before he will be eligible for parole under Illinois law. His attorney was given 30 days to file a motion for a new trial.

A Massac County Circuit jury of 10 men and two women deliberated two hours and 40 minutes to reach the verdict Friday.

VICTIM HAD 12 CHILDREN
Goodpaster, who lost his composure only once in the 11-day trial, remained impassive as the verdict was read. His wife, son and secretary broke into tears.

The victim, Margaret Strunk, 52, mother of 12 children, was making her way home with the man she lived with, Bernard Dobraski Jr., 33, when the shooting occurred near Goodpaster's rural Cartersville home.

Dobraski testified Goodpaster became enraged because he threw rocks at the optometrist's watch dog, then pursued them and shot Mrs. Strunk with a rifle and Dobraski in the head with a pistol.

Goodpaster denied the shootings but admitted scuffling with Dobraski. Goodpaster is the brother of Brig. Gen. Andrew J. Goodpaster, White House staff secretary.

Larry Thomas Smith Is A Busy Farmer

LENOIR, N. C. (AP) — Things were pretty hectic around the Larry Thomas Smith farm this week.

Wednesday, Smith was up most of the night with a brood sow. Early the next day a setting hen came off the nest with some newly hatched chicks, and Smith took his dog to a veterinarian to deliver her pups.

Thursday Smith rushed his wife to a hospital where she gave birth to an 8-pound daughter.

Smith didn't stay at the hospital long. He had to hustle back to the farm. It was calving time for his cow.

The wind, she explained, blew the first one away.
Only one ballot to a voter, replied Land.

JUNTURA, Ore. (AP) — An eastern Oregon rancher has his tomb ready but until he needs it for his burial, Tom Goodwin, 65, says he will use the concrete structure as a hunting and fishing cabin.

Goodwin says he built the crypt because he has no relatives and wanted to make his own burial arrangements.

Warriors Succumb 36-6 To Waynesboro Friday In South Penn Contest

Waynesboro High School scored 12 points in each of the first three quarters, on the ground and in the air, and went on to take an 8-0 victory over the winless Gettysburg High School football team here Friday night before about 1,000 fans. The loss virtually assures the Warriors of the South Penn cellar spot.

The Indians of Waynesboro wasted little time as they took the opening kickoff and drove 69 in six plays to light up the scoreboard with 2:23 gone in the first quarter. The key plays were a 20-yard end run by Don Eakle and the clincher off right tackle by the final 17. The score remained 6-0 when a plunge for the point failed.

Gettysburg was unable to move the ball on its series of downs and Waynesboro came roaring back to score another TD. After a personal foul had set the Indians back to the 50-yard line, seven plays ate up 49 yards, with Andy Bitner, a reserve halfback, carrying an important 26 yards to put the ball on the one. Here Eakle, the man of the evening, recovered this one and the Indians went off again.

Plays carried to the Gettysburg 20 at the end of the quarter. But Keith Vinson didn't waste any time in the second period as he took the ball on the first play and went off right tackle for the final 20.

After the Warriors were forced to punt following the kickoff, Waynesboro drove to another score in four plays, with the culminating being a 30-yard pass-run play from Dick Loy to George White who had managed to slip behind the red-shirted defenders.

Waynesboro stopped Midway in the second quarter. Ed Gastley intercepted a Tim Mahan pass and returned it to the Waynesboro 43. Here the Warriors drove down to the six against Waynesboro reserves. The Indian varsity was re-inserted and a fourth down pass by Jim Davies was batted down by Loy and the Indians took over.

A recovered fumble by Paul Plank on the Waynesboro 25 gave Gettysburg a good opportunity but the drive stalled on the 10 as the half ended.

The third period was more of the same as Davies led his team to the Waynesboro 43 only to fumble when attempting to pass. The ball rolled, was kicked and batted some 27 yards before Johnny-on-the-spot Eakle again recovered on the Gettysburg 30.

Four plays later, White took a 10-yard pitchout to up the score to 36-0.

Gettysburg punted four plays later, and Waynesboro was on their way to their final score of the evening. Starting from the Warriors' 38, four plays ate up the yardage, with an eight-yard Loy-to-White pass good for the clincher. On the play, Loy's legs were in the arms of a Warrior tackler but he stood firm to pitch the swing pass to White.

DEAN TALLIES

On the ensuing kickoff, Gettysburg put together its only sustained drive of the evening. With linemen Paul Plank and Jim Doaks running from halfback slots, the Warriors moved from their 37 to the Waynesboro 11, where Dean took a pitchout to score. In the drive, Plank carried four consecutive times to pick up 16 yards of the 64 in the touchdown drive.

The rest of the game saw many reserves in action but no serious scoring threats.

This was only the second time in 12 years that Waynesboro has been able to solve the Gettysburg attack. The Indians tackle Chambersburg next week while Gettysburg, losers of eight straight this year and two last season, sees not too much sunlight since they travel to Carlisle, who is presently atop the South Penn Conference. This is the last game of the season for the Warriors and its the kind that players like to hang up their cleats in a hurry.

STEVENSTRADENO MATCH FOR BULLET FROSH

Gettysburg College's Freshman football team was just too much in the second quarter for Stevens Trade Friday afternoon at Memorial Field as they scored three times and went on to a 27-6 decision over the Lancaster school.

The Little Bullets tallied about midway in the first quarter on a drive that started after Stevens had failed to get a first down on the Gettysburg 12-yard line. Seven running plays put the ball on the 50 where Lynn Hoffman broke loose on a counter play to score unopposed. Barry Gruber's kick for the point was no good.

The Bullets' next score came as the result of a fumble when quarterback Darrel Claar faded back to pass and Gettysburg recovered on the six-yard line. Parsons' five off tackle and a penalty put the ball back on the six again, from where John Wolfgang swept left end to make it 12-0. Gruber's kick was good this time.

Two plays later, the Bullets scored again. Parsons intercepted a Claar pass intended for Kun and raced 47 yards to pay dirt on the last play of the half. Gruber again split the uprights to make the score read 20-0.

The third quarter was nip and tuck with Stevens Trade able to make their only score. Their drive started on their 24 and, with the help of two 15-yard penalties plus a 33-yard off-tackle sweep by Ernie Kun the ball reached the one. Kun plunged across easily to put Stevens on the scoreboard.

Parsons scored the Bullets' last touchdown on the third play of the fourth quarter after Gettysburg had received a punt. He broke off right guard on a quick opener, cut back to his left and scored untouched on a 56-yard gallop. Gruber made good on the point to complete the scoring for the afternoon.

The Bullets early in the game had blocked a Stevens' punt on the 28 and it was recovered by the four by Bart Carhart. Joe Kuhn carried across from the three but fumbled in the end zone where Stevens recovered.

Next Thursday the frosh play at Shippensburg.

BROWNRETAINS TITLE IN EASY 15-ROUND WIN

By JIM BACON

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Joe Brown today holds the record for successful lightweight title defenses — his ninth — after a fun-filled unanimous win over Cisco Andrade.

Brown, who spent almost as much time laughing as punching Friday night, toyed with Andrade to score a lopsided decision.

Referee Lee Grossman scored the fight 12-3, judge Tommy Hart 14-1 and judge George Latka 13-3. The champ from Houston weighed 134½ and Andrade of suburban Compton 133½.

ACCUSATIONS

Andrade, 30, accused Brown of loafing and running backwards. The 34-year-old champ commented: "I'm an old man. That's why I was trying to rest in the middle rounds. I wasn't playing around. But he didn't open up the way I expected him to."

Brown, sidestepping and connecting with good lefts whenever he felt like it, made the 15-round title go more like a training camp sparring session.

Cisco got under Brown's lengthy reach in the eighth and landed what looked like the hardest punch of the fight—a corking right to the champion's jaw. It hurt Brown.

TO FIGHT AGAIN

The champion said he wants to go after title defense No. 10 before the end of the year—against either Eddie Perkins or Len Matthews. A telegram from Perkins, challenging the winner, was read from ringside.

The win broke a record of successful title defenses in the lightweight division which Brown had shared with the old-time great, Benny Leonard.

stood trial on the arson case and was found innocent. A later hearing restored him to his civil service position. A suit was started in York County in an attempt to recover clear title to the property. Later the Adams County suit was started in another attempt to secure clear title to the property.

APPEAL LIKELY

Judge W. C. Sheely said following Friday afternoon's verdict that it meant the insurance companies would still hold a $3,500 mortgage on Snyder's property, the $5,000 being credited against the $8,500 or the original mortgage. The $5,000 award represented the jury's opinion of the value of the house on the property.

It was indicated following the return of the verdict that there will be an appeal. Insurance company attorneys contend that Snyder's case cannot be heard by the court because he did not seek trial within one year as provided by the insurance policy. Snyder's attorneys' position had been that Snyder was not appealing on the policy, but on the mortgage against it. The matter will probably be up for further argument in the court.

Representing Snyder in the case were Attorney Raymond Smith of York and Walter Katherman of Littlestown. Representing the insurance companies were Bailey, Pearson, Miller and Bolton of Harrisburg and Bulleit and Bulleit of Gettysburg.

Littlestown Clobbers Susquehannock 39-0 As Bowers Runs Wild Again

Unbeaten but tied Littlestown High solidified its first place standing in the Laurel Conference by drubbing winless Susquehannock 39-0 Friday night at Littlestown as Bill Bowers, the Bolts sensational back, enjoyed another big evening.

Bowers scored four touchdowns, two of his scores coming on runs of 73 and 51 yards, and piled up a total of 278 yards in just 23 carries. Vicious blocking by his teammates made his runs comparatively easy. Bowers also added three extra points on plunges.

Susquehannock gave the Thunderbolts stiff opposition in the first period when neither team was able to score.

BORTNER GOES 60

Early in the second period the Warriors reached the Littlestown 33 where they missed a first down by inches. From that spot the Bolts moved for their first TD. Bowers picked up 12 yards before a 5-yard penalty was charged to the Bolts. On the next play Ted Bortner shot through the left side of the line to streak 60 yards for a score. Bowers added the point on a running play.

Dave Shue, a standout for Susquehannock, returned the following kickoff to the Littlestown 33. Two plays later the Warriors fumbled and Littlestown recovered on the 27. From there Bowers broke away on his longest run of the evening to hit pay dirt. The try for the point failed.

Larry Snyder intercepted a Warrior pass a short time later and returned to the Susquehannock 32. Dick Motter picked up two yards and then went the remaining 30 on the following play. When Bowers added the point on a plunge Littlestown led 20-0 at intermission.

SLUSSER RECOVERS

Right after the second half got underway Dave Slusser pounced on a Warrior fumble on the Littlestown 49 to set the stage for Bowers to break away on his 51-yard scamper. Bowers added another point on a plunge.

Later in the third period the Bolts marched 81 yards for their fifth touchdowns, Bowers eating up 41 yards on a dash to the two-yard line from where he crossed on the next play. The try for the point failed.

BOWERS GETS FOURTH

It took Littlestown five plays to go 53 yards for their final touchdowns in the last quarter with Bowers getting 27 yards during the drive and then climaxing the advance by slashing over from the five. Again the try for the point failed.

Littlestown racked up 15 first downs and almost 500 yards in rushing. Susquehannock was held to but four first downs.

The Thunderbolts meet unbeaten Biglerville on the Caners' field next Friday evening and then close out their campaign against undefeated South Western at Littlestown on November 11 which will settle the Laurel Conference title. Littlestown is the defending titlist.

LEADERS ARE FAVORED IN NFL SUNDAY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The record books show there is no such thing as a sure winner in the National Football League. But if form holds true for Sunday's six games, the New York Giants will still be unbeaten at the top of the Eastern Conference and the Green Bay Packers and Chicago Bears will be tied for the Western Conference lead.

The Giants (3-0-1) are favored to take the St. Louis Cardinals (2-3) by 10 points at Yankee Stadium. Earlier in the season at St. Louis, the Giants thumped the Cards 35-14.

Green Bay (3-1) and Chicago (3-1-1) are both touchdown favorites. The Packers will be at Pittsburgh for a game with the ever-tough Steelers (2-2-1) and the Bears at San Francisco against the 49ers (2-3).

EAGLES ARE IDLE

Baltimore's defending champions, battling to get back into the Western Conference lead, after losing two of their five games, are favored by 14 points over the winless Cowboys at Dallas.

The Philadelphia Eagles (4-1) second in the Eastern Division, are idle. Thus the Cleveland Browns (3-1) can move into a tie for runner-up honors back of the Giants by beating the Redskins (1-1-2) at Washington. The Browns are 10-point favorites.

The Los Angeles Rams (0-4-1) are at home to Detroit (1-3) in the league's other game. The Rams are favored by a touchdown.

Thompson Battles Mexican Tonight

NEW YORK (AP)—Federico Thompson, an Argentine by way of Panama, meets Gaspar Ortega, an Indian from Mexico, in a television 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden tonight.

At stake for the Argentine is a title fight with Cuba's Benny (Kid) Paret, the world welterweight champion, at the Garden, Dec. 10.

Thompson, No. 2 contender and unbeaten in his last two fights, is a 2-1 favorite.

It's a big risk for the 32-year-old Argentine. If he should lose decisively it will cost him the Paret fight, which he has all wrapped up.

So why take the chance, especially against a hot fighter who has won six straight?

The $6,000 purse and a fine opportunity to sharpen up for the title scrap, says Thompson.

Zettle Says It's Important To Control Rats In Winter

By FRANK S. ZETTEL
Adams County Farm Agent

As the season turns cooler, rodents will seek shelter and a place for a winter home. Mice will invade homes, and rats will look for food in grains, corn and other articles stored in farm buildings.

Special efforts during this season to catch or kill all of the invading pests will prevent breeding and multiplication of these rodents during the fall months. Mouse traps in the home should be set and baited with fresh material as soon as the bait dries out. Such standard baits as cheese and bacon are good. Quite frequently, some species of mice can be easily caught by pieces of apple, apple seeds or nut meats tied securely on the bait pan.

The use of anticoagulant baits which contain warfarin are safe and effective if properly used. Rat control can be efficiently achieved by use of these products according to the directions of the manufacturer.

Each rat on a farm or around a home in Pennsylvania costs the owner $20 or more each year and no one can afford to keep a batch of rats on the place.

PROTECT STRAWBERRY CROP

Are you interested in protecting the 1961 potential strawberry crop you so painstakingly nursed during the past six months. A severe winter could blast crop expectations. The application of an adequate mulch will do more to insure a profitable return than any other operation.

Using two to three inch mulch of wheat straw will serve a three fold purpose. It will protect weaker plants, prevent root injury caused by intermittent freezing and thawing of the soil, act as a guard against spring frost, result in grit-free fruits at harvest time, and offer a means of increasing the per cent of organic matter when the mulch is incorporated into the soil following harvest.

In most strawberry plantings mulching material can be applied the latter part of November or early December. Application need not be delayed until the soil can support heavy equipment. Mulching strawberry plantings is a way of assuring the return of investment plus a profit.

DON'T FEED SOFT CORN

Soft corn will be a problem in Adams County. Soft corn can be fed in limited amounts to growing and finishing pigs but should not be fed to any of the breeding sows.

Some of the molds produce estrogens similar to female hormones and tend to disrupt the reproductive cycle.

If feeding moldy corn in limited amounts to growing and finishing pigs, always feed it free choice. Do not mix moldy corn with other corn or protein concentrates. When moldy corn is fed free choice to these finishing pigs they will eat limited amount of it, but will not eat enough to create a toxic condition. Just remember, do not feed moldy corn to swine breeding animals, and do not not force feed it to growing and finishing pigs. Always provide other corn and a protein supplement when feeding moldy corn to finishing pigs.

Case Not Listed As Likely Suicide

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Paul Bern, the husband of actress Jean Harlow, died 28 years ago — a death listed then, and again Friday, as suicide.

The case was briefly reopened this week after writer Ben Hecht wrote an article in the magazine Playboy stating that writer-producer Bern may have been shot by another woman, and his death made to look suicidal to protect Miss Harlow's career.

After examining records and checking with Hecht, Deputy Dist. Atty. Manley J. Bowler closed the books again. He said Hecht conceded he had no reliable information to support his assertion in the magazine story.

By LOYAL GOULD
HEIDELBERG, Germany (AP)—Joe, Pierre and Kurt—American, French and German soldiers—eating, working, buddies and rooming together?

Strange as it might seem to soldiers of World Wars I and II, they are doing it here in a NATO experiment in manpower integration.

A GI named Joe Murphy, a French corporal named Pierre G. Brasseur and a German Pfc. named Kurt Tag tumbled out of their barracks today for roll called by a German army sergeant on a U.S. base here.

The three ate a breakfast prepared by French cooks and then went to a class in advanced automobile mechanics. Tonight they may hit town together.

HAVE "COMMON ENEMY"

"We've all got a common enemy now, so we must forget that we were once enemies," said Pfc. Murphy, 20, of New Haven, Conn.

Murphy expressed the concept behind the integration experiment. It has been two years in the planning by NATO headquarters, which feels the Soviet threat to Western Europe must be met by integration of manpower as well as of weapons.

Eventually 100 Americans, 100 French and 100 Germans will take part in the experiment, forming the headquarters unit of NATO's Central Army Group (CENTAG).

If this headquarters group proves successful, integration may be extended. But how far depends on French President Charles De Gaulle, who opposes full NATO integration.

PICKED FOR INTELLIGENCE

The soldiers in the unit were picked for their intelligence, high security rating and aptitude for at least one skilled trade. All spoke at least one of NATO's two official languages, French and English. Now they are learning another language. For Joe and Pierre, it is German. For Kurt, French.

CENTAG's officers also are mixed. Their commander is U.S. Maj. Gen. Christian H. Clarke. He has two assistants, German Brig. Gen. Friedrich Berendsen and French Brig. Gen. Pierre de Montjambert. The officers, too, are taking language instruction.

Joe, Pierre and Kurt say they consider it an honor to have been chosen for CENTAG.

INDIA STRIVES TO REVIVE U. N. ARMS SESSION

By TOM HOGE
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)

In an effort to head off a Soviet bloc boycott of U.N. disarmament debate, India and six other nations sought support Friday for a compromise proposal aimed at bringing the West and the Soviets back to the arms negotiating table.

Indian Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon hinted at the plan Thursday night in a two-hour speech before the 99-nation political committee.

Informed sources said India has drawn up a 9-point proposal with Burma, Mexico, Sweden, Venezuela, the United Arab Republic and Yugoslavia.

Diplomatic informants said the United States reacted favorably to the proposal, but the Soviets complained it left out any mention of Premier Khrushchev's proposals for a general and complete disarmament pact.

The Soviet Union and other Soviet bloc members have threatened to boycott the disarmament debate here unless Khrushchev's plan is accepted as the sole basis for negotiations.

The political committee has before it Khrushchev's plan, another resolution by the United States, Britain and Italy calling for step-by-step disarmament and a separate British proposal to set up a panel of experts to study inspection methods.

The General Assembly unanimously adopted a plan for surplus food to be distributed to needy nations by the Food and Agricultural Organization.

The plan was similar to that proposed by President Eisenhower on Sept. 22. FAO was asked to sell food, to be provided largely by the United States and Canada, at low cost and for the currency of the country needing it.

SAYS HE SENT ANTI-CATHOLIC SERMONS OUT

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Wealthy Dallas oilman H. L. Hunt said Thursday he mailed copies of an anti-Catholic sermon prior to the Democratic National Convention in an effort to win the nomination for Texas Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson.

Hunt said he has not taken part in the presidential campaign between Sen. John F. Kennedy, a Roman Catholic, and Vice President Richard M. Nixon, a Quaker.

Johnson, who sought the presidential nomination, is Kennedy's running mate.

PAID FOR 102,000
An official of a Senate investigating committee last week said he had evidence that Hunt paid for the printing and mailing of 102,000 copies of a sermon delivered by Dr. W. A. Criswell, pastor of the First Baptist church in Dallas. It is the largest white Baptist church in the nation.

In the sermon Dr. Criswell opposed the election of Kennedy because of his religion.

"Many of my very best friends, including clergymen, are Catholic and I am not at all critical of the Catholic church," Hunt said in a statement.

He said the sermon "was indicative of the bitter controversy that would result if a religious issue were injected into the 1960 presidential campaign."

Albert and Chester Hoff. Dedication of the new post office which is under the authority of the Lions Club will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, November 19. The committee in charge is Ralph Eisenhart, chairman, Charles Wallace, Charles Fahs, Charles Spangler, Sherman Krall and Glenn Cashman. At the next meeting Ladies' Night will be observed and the district governor of 14C, Robert Myers, will be the speaker.

Pfc. Charles B. Fahs who recently returned to his Marine base at Camp Lejeune, N. C., left today for a cruise on the Mediterranean Sea. Fahs will be sea borne from six to nine months.

Mrs. Harold Stoudt entered the Hanover Hospital Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Altland and family visited friends and relatives in East Berlin Wednesday. Altland, guidance counselor at Newport High School, visited the Hanover High School also on Wednesday.

Wed 82 Years, He Dies At 100

FAIRVIEW, Utah (AP)—A man married nearly 82 years, who once said that wasn't so long, "especially when we have a whole eternity together before us," died Thursday. He was 100.

Peter Peterson, born Sept. 27, 1860, in a dugout in this central Utah farm town, was an active Mormon and served as mediator between whites and Indians in pioneer days.

His wife, Celestia, will be 100 in December. They would have celebrated their 82nd wedding anniversary Dec. 11.

Scheib, Celeste and Tommy Kramer, Debra Gregory, Judene Cramer and Marie Pinkerton. Games were played and refreshments served.

The Brownie Halloween party will be held Monday from 4 to 5:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Harold Cramer, Water St.

Robert Fuller

Co-Star Of Laramie

Robert Fuller really gets paid for having a good time. He likes to act, he likes to ride and he likes to do daring stunts. The handsome young co-star of "Laramie" NBC-TV Network full-hour Western series (Tuesdays, 7:30-8:30 p.m. NYT), plays Jess Harper, a wanderer who has settled down, but whom adventure finds, even when he doesn't go out to seek it.

Fuller is living proof that it can happen here. The "here" is Hollywood. The "it" refers to a spectacular climb from the extra ranks.

Fuller, who was introduced to greasepaint in his mother's backstage dressing room, broke the barrier only because of an allergy to false sideburns. While working in "Friendly Persuasion," Bob grew his own. The director gave him a part in the film because his sideburns looked "real."

From then on it was a steady climb. He played the "heavy" lead in "Teen-age Thumper," followed by one television show after another. During the first three months of 1959 — he had leads in 10 top TV films and landed the co-starring role in "Laramie."

All this is about a kid who decided what he wanted and wouldn't quit. It started July 29, 1933 in Troy, N. Y. His father, Bob Cole, was a naval officer; his mother, Betty, a choreographer and dance headliner. Bob grew up in military school and spent weekends with his mother at the big Florida clubs where she was starred.

After his father left the Navy, the family moved to Chicago where "Pap," as his dad is still affectionately called, worked as a dance instructor and did an occasional show. Mom continued as a headliner at local clubs. They moved back to Florida and for a time operated a dancing school. Upon sale of the school they moved to Los Angeles.

WORKED AS USHER

At 17, Bob went to work as an usher at Hollywood theaters, rose quickly to the job of assistant manager. With his dad's help, he got a job as a dancer in a musical. Then came a two-year hitch with the Army in Korea.

He returned in 1955 to study with Richard Boone's acting group, went to New York for further study with Sandy Meisner at Boone's suggestion, and returned to Hollywood to go to work.

Bob has never forgotten that he's been an extra and a stuntman. He and a couple of buddies on weekends still do skin diving and cliff-leaping just for the fun of it.

Bob, one of Hollywood's most eligible bachelors, plans to concentrate on his career for a few more years before getting married.

"GREAT IMPERSONATION"

"The Great Impersonation" by the noted British writer E. Phillips Oppenheim will be the fourth presentation in the current series of the "Dow Hour of Great Mysteries" Tuesday, November 15 (NBC-TV Network, 10-11 p.m. EST). It will be adapted for television by Audrey and William Roos. Alistair Cooke is program host.

The story concerns a ruthless German spy in World War One, who plans to kill a British lord — his exact double. He plans ultimately to sit in the House of Lords in his place.

"The Law And Mr. Jones"

By PAUL GERARD

It seems almost fatalistically correct that a robust, bushy-browed, ruggedly-complected and somewhat stocky master of the acting craft named James Allen Whitmore Jr. should be catapulted onto the living room tube this autumn as the title character in a weekly stanza listed as "The Law and Mr. Jones."

Abraham Lincoln Jones is, of course, a lawyer — dedicated to reputation that covered the state. After the USO job James found theatrical pickings slim, competition rough. He was about to forsake a Broadway career and settle for the well-paid job of radio station manager in upstate New York.

"I thought Uncle Charlie would applaud my stability," smiles Whitmore. "But he didn't. He told me that as a young man just out of college he had gone to New York for an interview with a big law firm. But the experience scared him, and he returned to Addison and life as a small-town lawyer. His had been a full life, but Uncle Charlie sometimes thought of what might have been."

"I believed in Jones," says Whitmore.

"Jones is an opinionated guy. Opinions breed controversy, and controversy makes for drama and good entertainment. This is the function of good theater. Too frequently it is missing on television because of outside pres-

Janet De Gore teams with James Whitmore to fight injustice

the proposition that law is intended to regulate human beings and thus must, itself, be possessed of a certain humanizing elasticity both in interpretation and application.

But Jones is no backwoods bar-rister, bearded and log cabin bred. IS SHARP COUNSELOR

He is a sharp New York counselor who, unlike most TV lawyers, occasionally even loses a trial. And his cases, though not based upon the files of the SPCA, WPA or FBI, are sufficiently imaginative in concept to intrigue most viewers.

For instance, shortly before Election Day, Jones tries litigation involving a candidate who promised voters everything from mother love to lower taxes — then, when elected, failed to fight for his platform. He is sued for breach of contract.

Now, there is a novel premise.

FATHER WAS FAMOUS

Whitmore seemed pre-ordained to be an attorney. His father was regionally famed as city planner for Buffalo, New York, and young James remembers dinner table conversation was usually of the law and government.

James took his bachelor's degree in pre-law at Yale, then enrolled in Harvard's Law School. But war intervened and he took a government-sponsored trip to the Orient as a fighting Marine.

Lounging in the Okinawa fox-holes, Whitmore remembered happier days at Yale, his activities for the Yale Dramat and the fabled Whiffenpoof Society, his founding the Yale University radio station. By the time the Japanese surrendered, he had decided to forget the law and become an actor.

He journeyed to New York to look for work, landed his first professional role in "The Milky Way" — the road company. The producers: the USO. Itinerary: the same Saipan, Tinian, Okinawa he had just left.

"IRONY NUMBER TWO"

"Then," says Whitmore, "came irony number two."

Whitmore's Uncle Charlie was an attorney with a wonderful sort of King Tut office over a general store in Addison, N. Y., and a reputation that covered the state. After the USO job James found theatrical pickings slim, competition rough. He was about to forsake a Broadway career and settle for the well-paid job of radio station manager in upstate New York.

"I thought Uncle Charlie would applaud my stability," smiles Whitmore. "But he didn't. He told me that as a young man just out of college he had gone to New York for an interview with a big law firm. But the experience scared him, and he returned to Addison and life as a small-town lawyer. His had been a full life, but Uncle Charlie sometimes thought of what might have been."

"I believed in Jones," says Whitmore.

"Jones is an opinionated guy. Opinions breed controversy, and controversy makes for drama and good entertainment. This is the function of good theater. Too frequently it is missing on television because of outside pres-

ures. "But it's not missing with our friend, Jones."

"He investigates the nature of the law as it works in many ways. One show deals with a sharpie who acquires the name and business of a reputable builder and then uses this reputation to peddle inferior homes."

"Then there's that election story built on the premise that a politician, elected to public office on the basis on certain promises, can be sued for breach of contract when he fails to keep those promises."

"I WIN THE CASE"

"In that show we go further. I win the case and I'm asked to run, myself, for election. I beg off because I'm too busy with my law practice."

"At that point the political boss asks since I am unwilling to participate in the process of government what am I beefing about, what am I criticizing?"

"It's a thought-provoking teleplay, particularly at a crucial time when we find it difficult to coerce truly able men into government."

So Whitmore, who decided against studying law at Harvard, is finally practicing it in Hollywood. And it is interesting to note he brings to the job a natural feel for the profession.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Good taste in meal planning follows the same good rule that applies to any art form: Never overdo! It is better to serve a few courses of well-prepared, tasty food than an over-rich, elaborate and differently prepared quantity. No matter how many or how few courses are served, let each be perfectly cooked and served. Care should be taken to serve hot foods piping hot and those that are cold well chilled.

A good four-course dinner should be within the range of achievement of the average housewife:

1. Appetizer or soup
2. Meat/fowl or fish with vegetables and relishes
3. Salad or compote
4. Dessert and coffee
